About the Tasmanian Transport Association

The Tasmanian Transport Association is a public company limited by guarantee and registered under Corporations law. Its members are transport operators, freight forwarders and shippers operating in Tasmania. The TTA maintains close links with similar organisations and associations in other states and at a National level.

The TTA is committed to promoting efficient, effective transport operations to, from and within Tasmania by influencing both the regulation of transport and the provision of transport infrastructure.

The TTA provides members with key connections, the most up-to-date, relevant information about transport and logistics on a local, national and global scale and effective advocacy. We provide these services to our members to support them with compliance and safety and to improve their productivity and professionalism. The TTA works to support members to develop and maintain a rewarding and sustainable engagement in the Tasmanian transport industry.

The TTA is established to advise, assist and represent the Tasmanian Transport Industry in the pursuit of a safe, efficient, fair and environmentally friendly transport system.

TTA Works for Members

▶ Keeping you informed

Stay informed about industry news, traffic alerts, workplace relations changes and other issues with the Tasmanian Transport Association's Transport Matters e-newsletter. You'll also receive invitations to member-only workshops and seminars, as well as exclusive member information including safety alerts, fact sheets and toolbox talks.

▶ Workplace relations matters

Tasmanian Transport Association members may also choose to be members of the Tasmanian Branch of the Australian Road Transport Industrial Organisation (ARTIO). You have access to information on workplace relations issues, including rates of pay, workplace relations laws and termination of employment issues.

▶ Advocacy

The Tasmanian Transport Association represents its members' interests to state, federal and local government and enforcement agencies.

We provide the voice of the Tasmanian transport industry on transport related issues, including road safety, freight and logistics, regulation, compliance and enforcement, workplace health and safety, infrastructure and freight network planning, industrial issues and more.

The Tasmanian Transport Association is a member of the Australian Trucking Association, with a seat at the National Council, on its committees and in industry reference groups.

TTA represents the industry on the Tasmanian Road Safety Advisory Council.

▶ Supporting and growing a strong Tasmanian Transport Industry

Your membership supports the TTA to advocate for a strong, productive, professional and economically viable Tasmanian Transport Industry. Membership of the TTA ensures your voice is heard and that you can contribute to the conversation on issues affecting you and your customers, particularly where you are impacted by industry regulation.

► Workforce Development

The TTA supports and hosts the Tasmanian Transport and Logistics Workforce Advisory Group (TTLWAG).

TTLWAG is focussed on identifying the current and future workforce development needs of the industry and advising government on the requirements for the industry. The TTLWAG is a Strategic Industry Partner to Skills Tasmania.

The TTLWAG and TTA has developed a Tasmanian Transport Industry Workforce Plan for the period 2015 – 2018, which sets out key priority areas and projects of the TTA to support the development of a skilled and available workforce for the industry.

TTA works in conjunction with RTOs to apply for funding for industry relevant training programs.

► Alliance partnerships

Exclusive member deals are available through TTA and give your business better value for money.

As a TTA Member, you have access to:

- Expanded insurance products from National Transport Insurance (NTI) including TTA member-only workplace procedure templates and driver manual templates
- Tailored insurance services and products brokered through Gallagher Insurance brokers

As a member of the TTA, you have first options on partnership and sponsorship packages for TTA industry events including conferences, workshops and our Annual Gala Dinner and Awards Night.
